III. PERSONAL COMMENTS: Please answer as many of the following questions as you would like.

1) Please comment on the instructor's teaching.

Pauline was incredibly engaging and approachable - in fact, the most engaging instructor I had this semester. She was very effective in class - creative with pedagogy, considerate of students with different language learning affinities, and knowledgeable about teaching French to beginners (especially impressive because she is a native speaker). What I also appreciated from her was how considerate she

2) Please comment on classroom activities.

They were nicely varied in terms of types of activities (songs, power points, handouts, oral activities) and group sizes (we worked in pairs, small groups, & as a class.) I appreciate the creativity of the activities. As an English instructor I was very much impressed by how easy Pauline made learning French.

3) Please comment on materials and organization of the course.

I liked the daily songs; sometimes they were hard to follow (as in the lyrics) but they helped me think fast starting from the beginning of class - a skill I was rarely forced to practice when learning other languages.

Towards the end of the semester, I also liked how she used more student writings to comment on grammar, vocabulary etc.

4) Please comment on the work required in this course (writing assignments, tests, oral presentations, conversation groups, etc.).

I found the writing assignments particularly good practice; I thought it was very helpful (albeit more difficult) that exams involved more and more writing as time went on (because if I plan to study abroad, I have to think like a French writer AND reader.)

5) Other comments or suggestions you would like to make.

The only negative thing I have to say about the class is that when I was absent, it was far less enjoyable to make up the work by myself at home without participating in classroom activities! Also, towards the end of the semester as my questions about the language grew more complicated, I found myself asking things in English when I could have said the same in French....

But overall, French was very enjoyable this semester. I would love to continue learning the language. I must say that I have very high expectations of my French course next semester, and if Pauline ever gets to read this, j'adore Pauline!!!

III. PERSONAL COMMENTS: Please answer as many of the following questions as you would like.

1) Please comment on the instructor's teaching.

Pauline is the best teacher I've ever had, not only in Brown but in my entire life. She is warm and enthusiastic in class every day and she has new ideas every single lesson to keep French interesting. I see her once a week for extra lessons and she doesn't mind at all. She's inspiring and caring and I cannot - absolutely - think of anything lacking at all. WHY ISN'T SHE TEACHING FRENCH 200 ← only problem.

2) Please comment on classroom activities.

Class activities are fun and interesting, and I've never missed a single class even though I have them at 9am on my long days. They are varied and scabidou was fun, so we've kept interested in the language.

3) Please comment on materials and organization of the course.

Course organization was impeccable for a course that is so demanding. Materials are helpful and I've really learnt A LOT over the past 4 months.

4) Please comment on the work required in this course (writing assignments, tests, oral presentations, conversation groups, etc.).

Writing assignments/textbook writing every day, oral presentation in the mid-term, oral exams, tests fortnightly. I think the workload is immense but very helpful for students to keep working and improving on their French.

5) Other comments or suggestions you would like to make.

I just want Pauline for FR200! Why are you taking her away from us?!

French is the best ever. J'adore Pauline et J'adore Français!

III. PERSONAL COMMENTS: Please answer as many of the following questions as you would like.

1) Please comment on the instructor's teaching.

Pauline is an excellent teacher. she's fair, knowledgeable, approachable, encouraging, etc.

2) Please comment on classroom activities.

Activities were always fun and interesting. A few times a week we had work on our oral skills during an ~~section~~ ^{activity} that I called "walk around and ask each other silly questions" - it was a fun activity that made us learn a lot.

3) Please comment on materials and organization of the course.

great. Pauline was super organized.

4) Please comment on the work required in this course (writing assignments, tests, oral presentations, conversation groups, etc.).

When learning ~~to learn~~ a new language, one must work constantly, so the work definitely measured up to that - but it was worth it and always fun.

5) Other comments or suggestions you would like to make.

III. PERSONAL COMMENTS: Please answer as many of the following questions as you would like.

1) Please comment on the instructor's teaching.

Pawline is very nice, super approachable,
and really great at teaching

2) Please comment on classroom activities.

They were varied, but in some ways I wish there were more pressure & conversation.

3) Please comment on materials and organization of the course.

Campes confused me, and I didn't get how to use my courses at first, and even when I did understand, I didn't. To my detriment -
BUT, I can tell it was comprehensive & well organized.

4) Please comment on the work required in this course (writing assignments, tests, oral presentations, conversation groups, etc.).

I wish they had been harder, because I didn't work as hard as I could, but it was not so scary; and it was enjoyable and I'm excited

not scary
and it's smart.

5) Other comments or suggestions you would like to make.

More conversation, because we're all self-conscious abt our French to the point where we don't do the oral exercises.

about French. I know here's info on all the topics for my review.

Maybe a conversation group the 1st semester. With our TA, Katie, it seemed close to this & it was fun & I learned abt conversations
